

Please create a "do not call list". When I receive a telemarketing call, my response is to never buy anything from them in the future. The calls are annoying after a busy day at work, getting home and making dinner for a family. Calls on the weekend are just as annoying. If I want to make a purchase, I will make the effort to do so. If I want to refinance my mortgage, I will make the effort to do so. If after being asked to have my name removed from the calling list they are using, I expect that to happen. It does not, which is even more annoying. Thank You, Claudia Driscoll
